This week we have continued to experience deep changes in our lives. And yet despite the shifting of the times, our Lord and creator loves us, sustains us, and continues to rule. Let's use this prayer assembled from words in Revelation (4:11; 5:9, 13) to focus our hearts and minds on our slain and risen Lord.

You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honour and power, for you created all things and by your will they were created and have their being.

You are worthy, Lamb of God, for you were slain, and with your blood you ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation. To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and honour and glory and power, for ever and ever. Amen.

Hearing God's Word

Pray: Thank you, Father, that all Scripture is breathed out by you, and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness. Open our hearts to receive your word, that we may know you better and be thoroughly equipped for every good work, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The many changes we are experiencing can bring about grief in our lives. As you read this Psalm, let its words of lament express some of the grief you may be feeling at this time.

Bible Reading #1 – Psalm 56

To the leader: according to The Dove on Far-off Terebinths. Of David. A Miktam, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

- 1 Be gracious to me, O God, for people trample on me;
all day long foes oppress me;
- 2 my enemies trample on me all day long,
for many fight against me.
O Most High, 3 when I am afraid,
I put my trust in you.
- 4 In God, whose word I praise,
in God I trust; I am not afraid;
what can flesh do to me?
- 5 All day long they seek to injure my cause;
all their thoughts are against me for evil.
- 6 They stir up strife, they lurk,

they watch my steps.
As they hoped to have my life,
7 so repay them for their crime;
in wrath cast down the peoples, O God!

8 You have kept count of my tossings;
put my tears in your bottle.
Are they not in your record?

9 Then my enemies will retreat
in the day when I call.
This I know, that God is for me.

10 In God, whose word I praise,
in the LORD, whose word I praise,
11 in God I trust; I am not afraid.
What can a mere mortal do to me?

12 My vows to you I must perform, O God;
I will render thank offerings to you.

13 For you have delivered my soul from death,
and my feet from falling,
so that I may walk before God
in the light of life.

Bible Reading #2 – Luke 11:29–32

When the crowds were increasing, he began to say, “This generation is an evil generation; it asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah. ³⁰ For just as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so the Son of Man will be to this generation. ³¹ The queen of the South will rise at the judgment with the people of this generation and condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon, and see, something greater than Solomon is here! ³² The people of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the proclamation of Jonah, and see, something greater than Jonah is here!

If you like, spend a few minutes reflecting on the sermon. What stood out to you? What questions do you have? What will you do differently or new this week to live it out?

In Christ Alone

<https://youtu.be/8oivWN4QfRc>

In Christ alone my hope is found,
He is my light, my strength, my song;
This Cornerstone, this solid Ground,
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace,
When fears are stilled, when strivings cease!
My Comforter, my All in All,
Here in the love of Christ I stand.

In Christ alone! – who took on flesh,
Fullness of God in helpless babe.
This gift of love and righteousness,
Scorned by the ones He came to save:
Till on that cross as Jesus died,
The wrath of God was satisfied –
For every sin on Him was laid;
Here in the death of Christ I live.

There in the ground His body lay,
Light of the world by darkness slain;
Then bursting forth in glorious day
Up from the grave He rose again!
And as He stands in victory
Sin’s curse has lost its grip on me,

For I am His and He is mine –
Bought with the precious blood of Christ.

No guilt in life, no fear in death,
This is the power of Christ in me;
From life's first cry to final breath,
Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell, no scheme of man,
Can ever pluck me from His hand:
Till He returns or calls me home,
Here in the power of Christ I'll stand.

Confession

Isaiah 1:18 *Come now, let us argue it out,
says the LORD:
though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be like snow;
though they are red like crimson,
they shall become like wool.*

Let us draw near to God, who freely forgives through his infinite goodness and mercy, and pray to him with sincerity and confidence.

Pray Together:

Heavenly Father, we praise you for adopting us as your children and making us heirs of eternal life.

In your mercy you have washed us from our sins and made us clean in your sight.

Yet we still fail to love you and serve you as we should.

Forgive us our sins and renew us by your grace, that we may continue to grow as members of Christ, in whom alone is our salvation. Amen.

God is slow to anger and full of compassion. He forgives all who humbly repent and turn to his Son Jesus Christ, in whom there is no condemnation.

Prayers

Written by Nick Sundich

Almighty God:

We pray at this difficult time you would guide us and comfort us. For those who are sick, we pray that they would know the power of you and your healing hand.

May those who are caring for the sick, both nurses and those caring for loved ones have strength to do so.

For those who are not sick but are feeling lonely in this period when we are encouraged to stay at home and avoid social interactions - may they find other ways to connect and share their love.

Even though we are disconnected in the physical world we ask that you would make within us your dwelling place and home. May our darkness be dispelled by your light and our troubles calmed by your peace.

We pray particularly for the elderly, the sick (both those with COVID and those with other ailments) and those people 'cut off' from them due to the restrictions on visits to nursing homes and hospitals.

Finally we thank you for your promise that this virus will not have the final word - rather you will. And that on that day we will be delivered from all worldly pain, grief and anger will be gone forever.

Amen

Pray together: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Collection

If you do not do so already, please consider giving electronically to the work of the gospel in our parish and beyond.

Guide Me O Thou Great Redeemer

<https://youtu.be/8POcvNG1lvq>

Guide me O Thou great Redeemer
Pilgrim through this barren land
I am weak but Thou art mighty
Hold me with Thy pow'rful hand

Bread of heaven Bread of heaven
Feed me now and ever more
Feed me now and ever more

Open Thou the crystal fountain
Whence the healing stream doth flow
Let the fiery cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through

Strong Deliverer strong Deliverer
Be Thou still my strength and shield
Be Thou still my strength and shield

When I tread the verge of Jordan
Bid my anxious fears subside
Death of death and hell's destruction
Land me safe on Canaan's side

Songs and praises songs and praises
I will ever give to Thee
I will ever give to Thee

Closing Prayer

Romans 15:13 May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.
