How do I go about making a gift to St Mark's in my Will?

To make a Bequest to St Mark's you might like to consider the wording suggested below. These clauses are simply intended to act as a guide when making your Will or making alterations to your Will by way of a Codicil. Your solicitor may be able to advise you in this area. There are also taxation implications that you may need to consider. So we recommend that you involve your family as well as legal and financial advisors in your decision to make a bequest to St Mark's.
