

THE ST MARK'S HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Getting involved:

We are seeking to preserve important elements of Darling Point's history for posterity and we invite you to share your old photos, letters, household history and personal stories, etc. with the rest of the community. We calculate that over 10,000 weddings have been celebrated at St Mark's so there must be plenty of great stories to share.

St Mark's has two magnificent written histories of the church that read like the social history of Australia. To celebrate and commemorate our role in society we are inviting all interested parties to share their knowledge and experiences of St Mark's and what it means to them in the broader social context.

If you can help, or have suggestions on how you would like the SMHS to evolve, please contact us at history@stmarksdp.org

For more information about St Mark's history, click here.